Dear [redacted]:

Reference is made to my letter dated April 2, 1991, which furnished your office the partial results of a background investigation concerning Mr. Steven Paul Jobs.

Transmitted herewith is a summary memorandum containing the results of an additional inquiry in this matter.

Investigation determined that in 1984, Mr. Jobs who was the Chief Executive Officer of Apple Computer, Incorporated; other company officers; and the Board of Directors for Apple were named in a class action lawsuit which was brought on by the shareholders of Apple. The trial in this case begins on April 22, 1991. Absent a specific request from your office, we will not pursue this matter.

STEVEN PAUL JOBS

The information in this summary memorandum supplements the information contained in a summary memorandum dated April 2, 1991, and completes the investigation.

Miscellaneous

As indicated in the prior summary memorandum dated April 2, 1991, Mr. Jobs indicated on his Standard Form 86 dated February 6, 1991, that he was involved in a lawsuit filed in 1984 against Apple Computer, Incorporated, in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, Number C-84-20148 RPA, which is still pending. Issues involved alleged violation of Section 10 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. A check of the records of the United States District Court, San Jose, California, determined that this file consists of ten volumes, only five of which could be located. Volume one, containing the original complaint and details of the matter was one of the unavailable volumes.

On April 17, 1991, [redacted] Apple Computer, Incorporated, Cupertino, California, was interviewed by the FBI concerning this pending lawsuit. [redacted] stated that in 1984, Mr. Jobs, who was the Chief Executive Officer for Apple, along with other company officers and Board of Directors for Apple, were named in a class action lawsuit which was brought on by the shareholders of Apple. [redacted] advised that the trial in this case begins on April 22, 1991, and will be heard in Federal District Court. The docket number for this case is C8420148 (ARPA). Incorporated in this summary memorandum are the results of [redacted] interview.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

4/17/91

Date of transcription

[redacted] Apple Computer, Incorporated, was contacted at his employment at [redacted], Cupertino, California. [redacted] was advised as to the nature of this investigation and voluntarily advised as follows.

[redacted] He stated that he is speaking on behalf of [redacted] who is out of the United States presently and will return on Monday, April 22, 1991. He advised that during 1984, STEPHEN PAUL JOBS who was the Chief Executive Officer for Apple, along with other Company Officers and the Board of Directors for Apple were named in a class action law suit which was brought on by the shareholders of Apple. The law suit was predicated on the 1982-83 announcement of the LISA Computer which was touted as one of the top products which Apple had ever introduced into the computer market for personal computers.

[redacted] stated that the basis of the lawsuit was the Company's decision to advertise the positive features of the LISA computer, without also describing the potential problems concerning this computer. In addition, the LISA when introduced was priced at around $10,000 in January, 1983 and the MacINTOSH which was introduced in January, 1984 was priced at around $2,500. [redacted] stated the LISA was actually the predecessor of the MacINTOSH which as is well known did considerably better in sales and profit for the Company than the LISA.

[redacted] stated that a drop in Apple stock based upon the failure of the LISA to engender profits for the Company caused the shareholders to bring a class action suit against the Company for failure to disclose the potential problems of the LISA computer which caused shareholders to lose money based upon the devaluation of Apple stock. [redacted] explained that these kinds of lawsuits are fairly common in the Silicon Valley, however, he is convinced that the Company and JOBS acted in good faith and were not able to predict what would happen after the LISA was introduced.

[redacted] stated that the lawsuit was appealed by the Company and was denied certiorari by the United States Supreme Court. The Ninth District Court of Appeals in its findings stated that all but two of the actions on the part of the Company were not actionable. The two statements which were found which merited a trial were issues involving the "unifile" and "dual file" disk drives which apparently JOBS decided to use a different disk drive than was intended for these two software programs when upgrading the Apple I computer to the Apple II. [redacted] stated these programs were announced in November, 1982 and represented a small profit for Apple in the amount of $5,000,000, in terms of their other products.

b7c

[redacted] stated that trial in this case begins on Monday, April 22, 1991 and will be heard in Federal District Court by Judge JAMES WARE of the Northern District of California. The docket number for this case is: C8420148 (ARPA). [redacted] stated he would apprise the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) of the status of the case as appropriate.

[redacted] stated that other than this lawsuit, he was not aware of any other pending lawsuit against STEPHEN PAUL JOBS.

[redacted]

[redacted] the Appointee grew up in the late sixties and early seventies when drug use was prevalent and that she and the Appointee both experimented with various drugs although she would not be more specific as to the kinds of drugs involved, other than to say that experimentation was involved. She added that the Appointee is extremely health conscious now and rarely even drinks but will occasionally have wine socially.

She advised that she has never observed the Appointee express any bias or prejudice toward anyone for any reason, racial or otherwise

[redacted]

She added that a 1983 Time Magazine article by a MICHAEL (Last Name Unknown) provided a rather accurate description of the Appointee, in terms of his being a visionary and charismatic individual who was at the same time shallow and callous to people in his personal relationships. She described his personal life as being lacking due to his narcissism and shallowness. She added at the same time that he has far reaching vision and can vitalize plans and goals

Mr. Jobs indicated on his Standard Form 86 (SF-86) dated February 6, 1991, that he was involved in three lawsuits in 1985 and 1987.

He also indicated on his SF-86 that he was involved in a lawsuit filed in 1984 against ACI in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California, Number C-84-20148 RPA, which is still pending. Issues involved alleged violation of Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. A check of the records of the U.S. District Court, San Jose, California, determined that this file consists of ten volumes, only five of which could be located. Volume one, containing the original complaint and details of the matter was one of the unavailable volumes. Additional attempts to obtain details concerning this lawsuit remain outstanding.

A check of the records of the Santa Clara County Superior Court, (SCCSC) San Jose, California, indicated that on September 23, 1985, ACI, filed a complaint against Steven P. Jobs and another individual, alleging that they secretly planned the formation of an enterprise to compete with ACI; they lured top executives away from ACI to head up the new enterprise; sold ACI stock under false pretenses in order to finance the new enterprise, and planned to use ACI technology which would be a misappropriation of confidential and proprietary information. On January 21, 1986, after an out of court settlement was reached, the case was dismissed without prejudice. Details of the settlement were not reflected in the record.

SCCSC records also disclosed that on October 23, 1987, [redacted] filed a complaint against Mr. Jobs and NeXT, Incorporated. That complaint alleged that she left [redacted] ACI to accept a position at NeXT, Incorporated, at a salary of $80,000 a year, plus a large stock option. She stated she was under the impression that this job would be long term in nature; [redacted] alleged that this was a breach of an implied contract.

In response to [redacted] allegation, Mr. Jobs indicated that he did offer her a position with NeXT, Incorporated; however, he did not make her leave ACI. She accepted the position in September, 1985, but had difficulty getting people to work for her. Mr. Jobs advised that other positions were offered to [redacted] at the same salary, but none were acceptable to her.

On November 15, 1989, a judgment was rendered in favor of Mr. Jobs. An appeal was filed by [redacted], but that appeal has been dismissed.

A check of the records of the Superior Court for San Mateo County, Redwood City, California, indicated that on May 29, 1987, Woodside Design Associates, Incorporated, et al, filed a complaint against ACI, et al, for breach of contract and other related claims. Mr. Jobs was not personally named as a defendant rather he was named solely as an officer of ACI in this matter. A dismissal was filed on September 6, 1988, with prejudice (cannot file again) of the entire action.

A review of NEXIS, a computerized news retrieval service, disclosed numerous articles regarding Mr. Jobs. However, those articles contained no additional pertinent information regarding Mr. Jobs.

Agency Checks

A check of the Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs Information System (NADDIS), a data base operated by the Drug Enforcement Administration, disclosed no record concerning Mr. Jobs or his close relatives.

A check of the records of the San Jose, California, Better Business Bureau, disclosed no record concerning Mr. Jobs. It did reveal, however, several complaints concerning ACI. It was noted that ACI was always very responsive to all complaints filed, and its reputation is considered outstanding.

During the course of this investigation, the records of the following entities were checked and found to contain either no record or no additional pertinent information concerning Mr. Jobs, unless otherwise noted in this summary memorandum:

Consumer Fraud Division of District Attorney's Office of San Mateo County, California; Appropriate California Better Business Bureaus;
State of California Attorney General's Office;
Office of Personnel Management;

Attempts to contact [redacted] of the Apple Computer Company, 20525 Mariani Avenue, Cupertino, California have met with negative results since his secretary was first contacted on March 11, 1991. She advised on that date that he would not be available for interview until March 18, 1991 and that he would return the call on Tuesday or Wednesday of that week, however, he has not done so and repeated calls on March 21, 22 and 25th have not produced any response from [redacted]. A call was also made on March 26, 1991 for [redacted], however, no response has been received.

On March 26, 1991, [redacted] contacted the San Jose Resident Agency of the FBI in response to a message which had been left at his employment. He stated he has known the Appointee since [redacted] when he first went to work at Apple Computers. He described the Appointee as an individual of excellent moral character and integrity and knows of nothing which would reflect upon him in a negative way, to include drug usage or alcohol abuse. Further, he believed that the Appointee always lived within his means and associated with reputable people. He added that he never once observed the Appointee indicate in any way that he was either biased or prejudiced in any way toward anyone for any reason. He concluded by saying he would recommend the Appointee for a position of trust and confidence with the Government.

On March 27, 1991, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] for Apple Computers, Incorporated, 20525 Mariani Avenue, Cupertino, California was contacted at his employment and he voluntarily advised as follows. He stated he has known the Appointee for about [REDACTED] years, having met when he [REDACTED] first went to work at Apple when the Appointee was Chairman of the Board.

He characterized the Appointee as an individual of good character and integrity and knew of nothing which would reflect upon him in a negative way, to include drug usage and alcohol abuse.
He also stated that as far as he knew the Appointee always conducted his business dealings in a reputable manner and that the Appointee had been sued, however, by Apple when he resigned from the Company for having taken rights of technology or proprietary information with him when the Appointee departed Apple. The Appointee also took key technological personnel with him when he left which was also a basis of the law suit against the Appointee which has since been resolved.

He also stated that he has never observed the Appointee express any prejudice or bias toward anyone for any reasons racial or otherwise. He added that the Appointee was not terminated from Apple but left voluntarily, that is he resigned. He advised that as far as he knew, the Appointee lives within his means financially and associates with reputable people.

He concluded by saying that he would recommend the Appointee for a position of trust and confidence with the Government

On instant date, [REDACTED]

He advised that the Appointee lives within his means financially, however, based upon his newfound religious beliefs, the Appointee lives more of a spartanlike and at times even monastic existence. He added, however, the Appointee still associates with reputable people. He also advised that although the Appointee is not an engineer in the real sense, he understands base technology and technical jargon to the extent that he is an innovative force within the technical community, in terms of the contributions he has made.

He concluded by saying he would recommend the Appointee for a position of trust and confidence.

He stated he has known the Appointee for the [redacted] years on a professional basis and considers him to be an individual of excellent character and integrity. He knew of absolutely nothing which would reflect upon the Appointee in a negative way, to include drug or alcohol abuse. He added that he believed the Appointee lives within his means financially, albeit he is a man of considerable means and that he also associates with reputable people. He added that although the Appointee is not a deeply technical individual, he understands the technical field sufficiently well to engender new ideas in technology which are exciting to the computer field. He added that the Appointee based upon this ingenuity, is just the type of individual needed to participate in national science and technology forums. He therefore recommended the Appointee highly for a position of trust and confidence with the Government.

On instant date, [redacted]
[redacted] for Apple Computers, Inc., 20525 Mariani Avenue, Cupertino, California was contacted at his employment and he advised as follows. He stated he has known the Appointee since [redacted] however, became better acquainted with him when he came to work at Apple in [redacted]. He characterized the Appointee as an individual of good character and integrity, without any known problems such as drug and/or alcohol abuse. He added that he had never observed the Appointee exhibit any bias or prejudice toward anyone for any reason, racial or otherwise. He also stated that the Appointee is extremely competent in the field of computers and a bright and energetic worker who is also opinionated. He added that the Appointee lives within his means financially and associates with reputable people. He recommended him highly for a position of trust and confidence.

EMPLOYMENT

PIXAR
1001 West Cutting Boulevard
Richmond, California

On March 20, 1991, [redacted] (protect identity by request) [redacted] advised that he has known appointee approximately [redacted] years, originally meeting appointee when appointee was with Apple Computer [redacted]

[redacted] stated that in 1986, appointee purchased from Lucas Films, the graphic and color technology which PIXAR uses to produce computer graphic software used in computer generated pictures, commercials and which is used to color cartoon motion pictures. PIXAR sells the graphic and coloring software and generates computer commercials. [redacted] stated that PIXAR is owned by appointee, was incorporated in California on February 3, 1986, and appointee owns 100 percent of the stock. There is no Board of Directors other than appointee. [redacted]

b7C
b7D

[redacted] stated that his relationship with appointee is primarily a professional one; however, he has been to appointee's home on occasion.

[redacted] described appointee as an extremely intelligent individual, a true leader, who has made a difference in the computer industry and given the opportunity will make a positive contribution on the National scene. [redacted] stated that appointee is not an individual who can be intimidated; however, fits in and can talk with anyone. [redacted] further described appointee as an extraordinary person, who is an excellent business negotiator and recruiter of talent. [redacted] added that appointee is a demanding individual, expecting a lot from himself and others. [redacted] felt that most people including himself, believe appointee to be an extraordinary person with a good reputation, but when it comes to business there are frequently disagreements and sometimes hard feelings. [redacted] added that some people have a great respect for appointee and others dislike him. Appointee has the ability to listen to the suggestions and ideas of others and will adopt them; however, an individual dealing with appointee must know what he is talking about and present a strong case or appointee will disregard the discussion and sometimes the individual. [redacted] added that appointee is very truthful and straightforward with people and usually says exactly what he is thinking.

b7C
b7D

[redacted] considered appointee to be of good moral character, to be a loyal American and to maintain reputable associates. [redacted] stated that appointee is very health conscious and had no suspicions or personal knowledge of illegal narcotic use on the part of appointee and did not know appointee to abuse alcohol. [redacted] considered appointee to have a lifestyle and spending habits consistent with his financial means and [redacted] has never known appointee to express or show any bias or prejudice against any individual or group. [redacted] concluded by stating that he would highly recommend appointee for a position of trust and confidence with the United States Government.

NeXT COMPUTER INC.

September 1985 to March 1991

On March 13, 1991, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] NeXT Computer Inc., 900 Chesapeake Drive, advised that she had known the Appointee since [REDACTED] when they were employed at Apple Computer. Her contact had been professional and social. In September of 1985, the Appointee and five other individuals [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] formed NeXT Computer Inc. NeXT was a private California corporation, whose Board of Directors was made up of the Appointee, [REDACTED] PAT CRECINE, and [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] She considered the Appointee to be a person of high integrity who was ethical and honest. She had never seen reason to question his character, associates, reputation or loyalty. She had found him to be discreet and a superb manager. She had never witnessed any bias or prejudice and the Appointee was against any type of discrimination. The Appointee was an advocate of equal opportunity and was very employee oriented. She had never seen him use any kind of drugs although he had admitted to using drugs in his youth. The Appointee drinks occasionally, but only small amounts of wine. The Appointee was well off and had more money that he could spend in a lifetime and his chief concern was how that wealth would be used after he was gone. The Appointee liked brainstorming and was good at mediating. The Appointee understood the Japanese culture and had a great deal of contact in dealing with companies in the Orient. She was aware of nothing that would preclude him for being considered for a position of trust and responsibility and highly recommended him.

On March 14, 1991, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED], NeXT Computer Inc., 900 Chesapeake Drive, telephonically contacted the writer in response to an effort to locate and interview him at NeXT Computer Inc., on March 13, 1991. He advised that the Appointee was the President of NeXT Computer Inc., [REDACTED] the Appointee founded NeXT in 1985, as a private corporation. Their relationship went back to [REDACTED] when he worked [REDACTED] at Apple Computer. He was professionally and socially acquainted with the Appointee and characterized the Appointee as an upfront individual who was work oriented. The Appointee had spent most of his adult life working in and around the Computer Industry and was not politically active. He felt, however that the Appointee had a great deal of skill in dealing with overseas companies in Asia and Europe, and would be an asset to the Government. The Appointee had always conducted his business above board and took pride in his companies. The Appointee took personal interest in the employees of the companies and was sympathetic to problems and needs of others. He had found the Appointee to be adaptable to the situations at hand and felt he would make an excellent addition to any Board or Council. The Appointee had no prejudices or bias against any race, religion or sex and was very much for equality and competition. He felt the Appointee was personally responsible and there was nothing in the Appointee's lifestyle that was not in keeping with the Appointee's means. As near as he knew the Appointee had investments in NeXT and PIXAR, which were the two companies the Appointee was involved in. He had no knowledge of current drug usage or alcohol abuse on the part of the Appointee. He could think of nothing that would be embarrassing to the Appointee, and pointed that the Appointee had a daughter out of wedlock and had admitted to using drugs in the past, but these were things that were common knowledge and there was nothing he was aware of that was not public with regard to the Appointee's activities or associations. He had never been

On March 4, 1991, [REDACTED], [REDACTED], Apple Computer, Inc., 20525 Mariani Road verified that the Appointee worked there from January 1, 1977 until September 20, 1985 as the Chairman and Founder and no other information was available.

On instant date, the secretary for [REDACTED] for Apple Computer, Inc. 20525 Mariani Road stated that [REDACTED] was out of town for the next two weeks and would not be available for interview before March 18, 1991. She added, however, that [REDACTED] for the Company knew the Appointee quite well and would be able to comment on him.

On instant date, [REDACTED] for Apple Computer, Inc. was contacted and advised that the Appointee had originally hired him [REDACTED] years ago to work at Apple and he had nothing but the highest praise for the Appointee who he considered to be an individual of the highest character and integrity. He added that he knew of nothing which would reflect upon the Appointee in a negative manner, to include drug or alcohol abuse, which would be out of character for the Appointee. He added, however, that the Appointee when he was much younger may have experimented with drugs during the late sixties and early seventies, having come from that generation. In addition, he has never personally observed the Appointee indicate that he is either biased or prejudiced in any way. He also associates with reputable people. He recommended him highly for a position of trust and confidence.

b7C

On instant date, [REDACTED] Apple Computer, Inc. was also contacted at his employment and he stated he knew the Appointee quite well and described him as an individual of excellent character and integrity. He also stated that the reason the Appointee was terminated from employment there was because of management style differences which the Appointee had with [REDACTED]. He knew of nothing which would reflect upon the Appointee adversely, such as drug or alcohol abuse. He also stated he had never observed the Appointee indicate that he was biased or prejudiced in any way and the Appointee associates with reputable people. He recommended him for a position of trust and confidence.

b7C

On instant date, [REDACTED] Apple Computer, Inc. was contacted at her employment and she verified that the Appointee had worked there during the time in question. She characterized the Appointee as an excellent person and a brilliant computer scientist. She added that the Appointee enjoyed a good reputation and she knew of nothing which would reflect upon him in a negative manner, to include drug or alcohol abuse. She stated that the Appointee had been terminated from the Company due to differences in management philosophies with [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] She also stated she had never seen the Appointee exhibit in any way bias or prejudice toward anyone for any reason, racial or other. She added the Appointee associates with reputable people. She recommended him highly for a position of trust and confidence with the Government.

[REDACTED] He characterized the Appointee as an individual of excellent character and reputation, without any known problems such as drug or alcohol abuse, however, the Appointee may have experimented with drugs in the late sixties or early seventies. He added that he had never observed the Appointee exhibit any form of bias or prejudice toward anyone and that the Appointee enjoys a comfortable lifestyle and associates with reputable people. He recommended him for a position of trust and confidence with the Government.

RESIDENCE

From July, 1990 - Present

On March 4, 1991, [REDACTED] was contacted at her residence located at [REDACTED] and she verified that the Appointee was her next door neighbor. She described him as a quiet and unassuming individual who had never caused any problems as a neighbor and who visited her last week to ensure that some landscaping he was having done would not cause any problems with her and her husband. She also stated that he appeared to live a relatively spartan existence in his home and she was unaware of any problems he might have with illicit drugs or alcohol abuse. She added that the neighbor on the other side of the Appointee, [REDACTED], had invited the Appointee over recently for a social gathering and may be able to comment on him, as well. She recommended him for a position of trust and confidence.

b7C

On instant date, [REDACTED] was contacted at her home located at [REDACTED] and she verified that the Appointee had moved in about a year ago. She did not, however, know the Appointee well enough to comment as to his suitability for employment with the Government, although he seemed to be a nice enough person.

On instant date [REDACTED] was also contacted at his home at [REDACTED] and he stated that although he was aware of the Appointee having moved into the neighborhood, he did not know him at all and therefore could not comment as to his suitability for employment.

On March 4, 1991, attempts were made to contact [REDACTED] supra; however, [REDACTED] stated [REDACTED] was unavailable for interview and that she herself along with her husband were tenants in [REDACTED] home and were visiting from England. She did not know the Appointee sufficiently as to comment regarding his suitability for employment with the Government.

On March 4, 1991, [REDACTED] was contacted at his residence at [REDACTED] and he stated he did not know the Appointee but knew he had moved into the neighborhood. He stated he could not comment as to his suitability for employment.

The following investigation was conducted by SA [REDACTED]

AT WOODSIDE, CALIFORNIA

RESIDENCE

460 Mountain Home Road,
November, 1984 to July, 1990

On March 13, 1991, [REDACTED] advised that the Appointee formerly resided at 460 Mountain Home Road and that she used to get his mail as well as people looking for his residence. Since the Appointee's residence was not located directly on Mountain Home Road, most people were not able to locate it without directions. She added that the dates November, 1984 to July, 1990 sounded plausible and that he did in fact live there. She did not have any personal contact and could not comment as to his suitability for a presidential appointment.

On March 13, 1991, efforts to locate anyone at 485 and 475 Mountain Home Road met with negative results.

On March 13, 1991, [REDACTED] advised that she did not know the Appointee as a neighbor, even though he had lived in the area but that her husband knew the Appointee through his computer business. She added that her husband was out of town and would contact the writer upon his return.

On March 13, 1991, [REDACTED], [REDACTED] telephonically located the writer in response to a note that was left at his residence and advised that he knew the Appointee as a former resident at 416 Mountain Home Road. The Appointee was a good person and a good neighbor. He advised that the period from 1984 to 1990 sounded correct and that he was aware of nothing that would preclude the Appointee from being considered for a position of trust and responsibility. The Appointee was a very public figure and there had been much written about the Appointee but he had never seen anything personally in the way of personal habits, activities or associations that would be of a negative nature. He was happy to recommend the Appointee.

On March 14, 1991, [redacted] [redacted] [redacted] advised that the Appointee formerly lived at 460 Mountain Home Road from 1984 to 1990 when he moved to Palo Alto to be close to his daughter. She and her husband had met the Appointee through their son-in-law, [redacted]. They had had the Appointee over for dinner and he didn't appear to drink or smoke. He was a vegetarian and did a great deal of jogging. They never saw as much of the Appointee as they liked since he was a very intense worker and spent a great deal of time with his work. She considered him to be a wonderful individual and was aware of nothing that would preclude him from being considered for a position of trust and responsibility. The Appointee was well off and didn't appear to be a big spender. The Appointee had kept the house at 460 Mountain Home Road and planned to build something on that property at a later date. She considered him to be of the highest character, associates, reputation and loyalty and he had never seen any indication of drug usage, prejudice, or unethical behavior on his part. She highly recommended him.

On March 16, 1991, [redacted] [redacted] telephonically advised that he knew the Applicant as a former resident at 460 Mountain Home Road from approximately 1984 to 1990. He had also met with the Appointee a couple of times in his position as president and CEO of MIPS Computer Systems Inc., Sunnyvale, California. He was aware of nothing negative with regard to the Applicant's residency in Woodside, California, and had never had any unfavorable dealings with the Appointee. As far as he knew the Applicant enjoyed a good reputation and was a person of good character, reputation and associates. He had never seen any indication of drug usage or alcoholic abuse and he was aware of nothing in the Appointee's lifestyle that would not be commensurate with the Appointee's means. He could think of nothing that would preclude the Appointee from being considered for a position of trust and responsibility.

The following investigation was conducted by SA [REDACTED]

AT LOS GATOS, CALIFORNIA

ASSOCIATES

On March 11, 1991, [REDACTED] was contacted at his employment at [REDACTED] located at [REDACTED] and he was advised as to the nature of this investigation and advised as follows. He did not request confidentiality.

[REDACTED] He described the Appointee as an individual who was not totally forthright and honest and has a tendency to distort reality in order to achieve his goals. He offered a comparison in that he [REDACTED] has high ethical standards and does business with people using this standard, however, the Appointee will twist the truth in order to achieve whatever goal he has set for himself. He therefore considered the Appointee to be a deceptive person.

b7c

He provided an example of this deceptive characteristic of the Appointee. [REDACTED]

He also advised [REDACTED] he had heard reports from mutual friends and also an admission by the Appointee that he freely used illicit drugs during his college tenure, to include marijuana and LSD. He never actually observed the Appointee use any drugs or consume alcohol to excess.

He also stated that the Appointee while living with his high school girlfriend had a daughter out of wedlock. This woman's name is [REDACTED] and their daughter who was probably [REDACTED] or [REDACTED] now was called [REDACTED]. He advised that during their early relationship, the Appointee mistreated both [REDACTED] and her daughter, by not supporting them; however, he understands that he has, of late, been more supportive of his daughter and her mother.

He added that along these same lines, an individual named [redacted] would also be able to shed more light on the Appointee and this relationship he had with [redacted]

[redacted] He also provided names of others who would know the Appointee well as follows: [redacted] at [redacted] for Apple Computers, Inc.; [redacted] who was instrumental [redacted] and can be reached at [redacted]; [redacted] for MacINTOSH products and can be still reached at Apple Computers; [redacted] who is also at Apple still; and [redacted] who is also at Apple.

He concluded by saying that although he does not consider the Appointee to be a personal friend; he believed the Appointee has what it takes to assume a high level political position within the Government, which in his opinion, honesty and integrity are not prerequisites to assume such a position. He therefore recommended the Appointee for a position of trust and confidence for the Government.

On March 13, 1991, [redacted], [redacted] General Magic, Inc. located at 444 Castro Street in Mountain View, California, was contacted and has known the Appointee since [redacted] and met him while they were employed at Apple and worked closely with the Appointee from [redacted] when he left Apple. He stated the Appointee left Apple in September, 1985 under less than desirable circumstances. He explained that he understood that the Appointee was fired by [redacted]; however, since he had already left the Company, he only knew what he had heard and was reported in the media. He added that he has remained friends with the Appointee and described him as an individual who was extremely strongwilled and stubborn. He added that from a positive perspective, the Appointee is also a very hardworking and driven individual and is successful as a result of these qualities but these same qualities act to his detriment in other respects such as in his personal relationships. He has never personally observed the Appointee use illicit drugs or abuse alcohol. He believed that other than what he noted above, the Appointee is an individual of good character and integrity; however, he qualified the Appointee's integrity that as long as the Appointee gets his way. He added that the Appointee lives within his means financially, however, his means are considerable and the Appointee is worth at least one hundred million dollars. He also believed the Appointee associates with reputable people and recommended him for a position of trust and confidence with the Government.

b7c

On instant date, [redacted] of General Magic, Inc., 444 Castro Street, Mountain View, California was contacted at his employment and he stated he has known the Appointee for the past [redacted] years [redacted] He stated that the Appointee is an individual of good character and reputation and that he also is a man of integrity, providing he gets his way. He knows of nothing which would reflect [redacted]

b6

upon the Appointee in a negative way, to include drug and/or alcohol abuse. He added that he has never observed the Appointee express any prejudicial or racist sentiments and considers him to be fairly open minded. He added that the Appointee lives within his considerable means, financially and associates with reputable people. He recommends the Appointee for a position of trust and confidence with the Government.

On March 14, 1991, [redacted] was contacted at his employment at Apple Computers, where he works as a [redacted]. He stated he has known the Appointee since [redacted] [redacted] He characterized the Appointee as an individual of good character and integrity and knows of nothing which would reflect upon the Appointee in a negative way, to include drug or alcohol abuse. He added that the Appointee is a loyal U.S. citizen and has never expressed any bias or prejudice toward anyone for whatever reason, racial or other. He stated the Appointee lives within his means and associates with reputable people. He recommended the Appointee for a position of trust and confidence with the Government.

On instant date, [redacted] was contacted at his residence at [redacted] Palo Alto, California. [redacted] stated he was [redacted] is in the process of starting up a company. He stated he has known the Appointee since [redacted]

b7C

[redacted] He stated he was a good friend of the Appointee then. He added that although the Appointee is basically an honest and trustworthy person, he is a very complex individual and his moral character is suspect. He stated he is no longer friends with the Appointee and feels bitter toward him and somewhat alienated, [redacted]. He explained that he [redacted] did not receive any stock as a result, which would obviously have made him quite wealthy. He stated the Appointee alienated a large number of people at Apple, as a result of his ambition. He added that the Appointee is technically oriented but is in the opinion of many, not an engineer, since he never actually got an engineering degree from College and has been successful in business by delegating tasks to people. In this respect, he considers the Appointee a successful individual and has what it takes to succeed in politics, to include governmental politics.

He advised that the Appointee, [redacted]

[redacted] He stated the Appointee had met [redacted] in High School and they were high school sweethearts. He added that she and the Appointee had a baby girl out of wedlock, whose name was [redacted]. She is about [redacted] years old now and was born in [redacted] or [redacted]. He added that [redacted] has been mentioned in many books which have been written about the Appointee but has always used assumed names so as to protect her daughter from the possibility of being kidnapped for ransom. He stated she would be reluctant to speak to the FBI, based upon her negative experiences with the Appointee, in which the Appointee basically abandoned her and her daughter; however, lately, the Appointee has been more supportive of both of them and has even purchased a home near where the Appointee resides, for them to be close to him.

He stated that although he does not consider the Appointee a friend now, he believes the Appointee could succeed in any political position, based upon his method of operation. He added that he has never observed the Appointee use illicit drugs or abuse alcohol and that he associates with reputable people. He added that he had never observed the Appointee express any racist sentiments and would recommend him for a position of trust and confidence with the Government.

On instant date, [REDACTED] b6
[REDACTED] ADOBE Systems, Inc. 1585 Charleston Road, Mountain View, b7C
California, was contacted at his employment. He stated he has known the Appointee since [REDACTED] and the Appointee had an interest in the Company. He described the Appointee as an individual of good character and integrity. He stated he knows personally of nothing which would reflect upon the Appointee in a negative way, to include drug or alcohol abuse. He added, however, that it is well documented in books concerning the Appointee, that he used drugs freely while in College and in the early days at Apple. He considers the Appointee to be a loyal citizen and a competent individual. He added that he had never observed the Appointee to be in any way biased or prejudiced toward anyone for any reason, racial or otherwise. He recommended him for a position of trust and confidence with the Government.

On March 18, 1991, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED], 1755 Embarcadero Road, Palo Alto, California, telephonically contacted the writer and advised that he had been an associate of the Appointee's since [REDACTED]. He was in the marketing and consulting business and was active in doing work for the Appointee when Apple Computer was formed. He described the Appointee as a very genuine person who was extremely creative. He had never been given reason to question the Appointee's character, associates, reputation or loyalty. He had been in the Appointee's home and had had the Appointee in his home and had never encountered any drug usage on the Appointee's part and the Appointee's consumption of alcohol had always been minimal. The Appointee was wealthy and lived well within his means. He had never seen any prejudice or bias on the Appointee's part against any race, religion or sex. He felt the Appointee would make a good representative and was very knowledgeable in the area of computers. He was personally aware of nothing that would reflect unfavorably on the Appointee with regard to the Appointee's activities or associations and he was happy to recommend the Appointee.

COURT RECORDS

On March 18, 1991, the records of the Santa Clara County Superior Court were reviewed and the following information obtained:

Case Number 584898
Apple Computer, Inc.
vs.
Steven P. Jobs & [REDACTED]

The original complaint in this matter was filed September 23, 1985, alleging that Defendants secretly planned the formation of an enterprise to compete with Apple Computer, lured top executives away from Apple Computer to head up the new enterprise, sold Apple stock under false pretenses in order to finance new enterprise, and planned to use Apple technology which would be a misappropriation of confidential and proprietary information. On January 21, 1986, after an out of court settlement was reached, case was dismissed without prejudice.

Case Number 641354
vs.
Steven Jobs/NeXT, Inc.

b6
b7C

Original complaint was filed in this matter on October 23, 1987, by [REDACTED], alleging she left [REDACTED] Apple Computer to go with JOBS/NeXT, Inc. at $80,000 a year, plus a large stock option. She stated she had the impression that the job would be long term in nature. [REDACTED] alleged this was breach of implied contract.

JOBS' reply to the allegation was that he offered her the job with NeXT, Inc.; however, he did not make her leave Apple. She accepted the position in September, 1985, but had great difficulty getting people to work for her. Other positions were offered to her at the same salary, but none of them were acceptable to her.

On March 15, 1991, records of U.S. District Court, San Jose, California, were reviewed with regard to file C84-20148 RPA. This file consisted of ten volumes, only five of which could be located. Volume one containing the original complaint and details of the matter was one of the unavailable volumes. As a result, a copy of the docket was obtained, as it was the only document available which gives a history of the case. It is noted that STEVEN P. JOBS is mentioned as a defendant in the case, and the case is still pending. The copy of the docket is attached hereto and considered a part of this communication.

INTERVIEW OF A BUSINESS OFFICIAL

AT DALLAS, TEXAS

On 3/18/91, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] advised SA [REDACTED] with the following information having to do with his knowledge of the appointee,
STEVEN PAUL JOBS:

He has known the appointee for about [REDACTED] years.
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] continued that his knowledge of the appointee is based strictly on his knowledge of the appointee in a business situation. He stated that he feels that the appointee is well thought of and has done an excellent job as a member of the COMPUTER INDUSTRY in the United States.

He also noted that he recalled that the appointee was recently married, and that his wife had something to do with Stanford Business School. He described the appointee as being a "genius" in the area of computers.

He stated that he is not personally well acquainted with the appointee with the exception of his meetings [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. He stated that he knows nothing of a derogatory nature regarding applicant's moral character, associates, or loyalty. Neither does he have any personal information with regard to any drug use, prescription medicine or alcohol abuse, personal financial problems, or prejudices that he is aware of.

b6
b7c

He also noted that it is his understanding that the appointee previously invented the personalized type computers produced by the APPLE COMPUTER COMPANY, and he is under the understanding that the appointee actually invented the APPLE COMPUTER.

He has been told that the appointee actually did not graduate from college but was able to conduct such an invention due to his extreme intelligence and willing to work. He also noted that apparently many articles and possibly books regarding the appointee have been previously been written because of the appointee's invention of the above-described APPLE COMPUTER CORPORATION.

161B-HQ-23908

[redacted] noted that he recommends the appointee for a position of trust and confidence with the U.S. Government, particularly in anything having to do with computerized information.

ENCLOSURE - RELEASE FORM TO BE ATTACHED

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Carefully read this authorization to release information about you, then sign and date it in ink.

AUTHORITY FOR RELEASE OF INFORMATION

I Authorize any duly accredited representative of the Federal Government, including those from the U.S. Office of Personnel Management, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and the Department of Defense, to obtain any information relating to my activities from schools, residential management agents, employers, criminal justice agencies, financial or lending institutions, credit bureaus, consumer reporting agencies, retail business establishments, medical institutions, hospitals or other repositories of medical records, or individuals. This information may include, but is not limited to, my academic, residential, achievement, performance, attendance, personal history, disciplinary, criminal history record, arrest, conviction, medical, psychiatric/psychological, and financial and credit information.

I Further Authorize the U.S. Office of Personnel Management, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Department of Defense, and any other authorized agency, to request criminal history record information about me from criminal justice agencies for the purpose of determining my eligibility for access to classified information, or assignment to, or retention in, sensitive national security duties, in accordance with 5 U.S.C. 9101.

I Direct You To Release such information upon request of the duly accredited representative of any authorized agency regardless of any agreement I may have made with you previously to the contrary.

I Understand that the information you release is for official use by the Federal Government, and that these users may redisclose the information you release as authorized by law.

I Release any individual, including records custodians, from all liability for damages that may result to me on account of compliance or any attempts to comply with this authorization. This release is binding, now and in the future, on my heirs, assigns, associates, and personal representative(s) of any nature. Copies of this authorization that show my signature are as valid as the original release signed by me.

SPIN (B)
BUDED: 3/7/91

Bureau has been requested to conduct a Level III background investigation of Mr. Jobs for a Presidential appointment to the President's Export Council, which does not require Senate confirmation.

Field Offices are reminded that the investigative status of a background investigation (BI), all deadlines and the position for which the appointee is being considered shall not be disclosed to any interviewees. If during the course of the investigation, interviewees provide the nature of the position, that information is not to be further divulged outside the FBI. Inquiries by interviewees concerning the nature of the position are to be handled as set forth in MIOG, Part II, Section 17-5 (5). Appointees making inquiries regarding the status of their BI are to be referred to the client agency.

Conduct investigation in accordance with guidelines set forth in airtel to all offices dated 11/29/90, captioned "Changes in Special Inquiry (SPIN) Background Investigations (BI) and Procedures".

161-23908-

b1

Appointee is described as born on February 24, 1955, in San Francisco, California; has SSAN 549-94-3295; resides at [redacted] and is currently president of [redacted] NEXT, Incorporated, Redwood City, California.

b6
b7C

STEVEN PAUL JOBS

Appointee will be required to make decisions concerning policy and personnel matters; therefore, during interviews, determine if appointee has expressed or manifested any bias or prejudice against any individual or group based upon sex, race, color, religion, national origin, handicap or age. Determine if appointee lives within his financial means. Also determine if appointee uses illegal drugs or abuses alcohol.

Investigation should receive immediate attention and receiving offices should telephonically advise FBIHQ of any derogatory information developed, confirm by teletype, and record pertinent interviews relating to derogatory information on FD-302s.

Receiving offices note that the last ten years of appointee's life must be accounted for and, if during the course of investigation unexplained or unaccounted for gaps are identified, leads should be directed to the field office covering appointee's current employment to have appointee contacted and to have his activities during specific periods identified.

As this is a Presidential appointment, field offices are expected to meet deadline.

LEADS:

(S)

San Francisco: Immediately interview appointee in accordance with MIOG, Part II, Section 17-5.6 and will report results on an FD-302. At an absolute minimum, the FD-302 should clearly set forth the appointee's responses to those questions labeled a-m under Section 17-5.6 cited above. Determine date and place of birth of daughter, [redacted] Also, determine who her mother is and interview her or set lead. [redacted]

b6
b7C

b1

Obtain comments from Mr. Jobs concerning any past/current drug use and his termination from Apple Computers.

San Francisco: Insure at least fifteen persons knowledgeable concerning appointee are interviewed. Check Better Business Bureau concerning any complaints that may have been lodged against him or his companies. Through records and interviews, determine reason for termination from Apple Computers. Obtain details of listed lawsuits through appointee and court records, Determine dispositions and if appointee was ever personally named as a defendant. Contact the United States Attorneys' Offices wherever appointee has lived or worked as an adult to determine if any indication appointee has been involved in a matter handled by the U. S. Attorney's Office (either criminal or civil, in closed or current files).

STEVEN PAUL JOBS

Cincinnati: Check DISCO.

Sacramento: Verify date and place of birth through Bureau of Vital Statistics. Check State Attorney General's office for any complaints/grievances against appointee or companies.

WMFO check White House, United States Secret Service, and Public Integrity Section, Department of Justice.

Submit results of completed investigation to reach FBIHQ no later than COB BUDED; Use express mail or overnight delivery service if necessary.

Direct results to the attention of ,
